

ROD HUBER

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

College of Mount St. Joseph

Rod Huber returns in 2010 for his 11th season as the Lions' head coach. Huber, who directed the team's defense in 2007-08, has 27 years of coaching at the high school and college level and has been on the Mount football staff since the program's inception in 1990. Coach Huber led the program to a three straight HCAC championship (2004-2006), and the Lions 9-2 overall mark last season was their eighth straight season of a .500 or better record. The Lions claimed the 2009 HCAC championship with a 7-0 mark, their fourth HCAC title in program history, which enabled them to qualify to the NCAA Division III playoffs, marking their fifth overall appearances in the post-season tournament. The Mount is also the only team in HCAC history to record three straight conference titles. In addition, Huber was named HCAC Coach of the Year last fall, his third such honor. Coach Huber also served as the Head Wrestling Coach at the Mount from 1997 - 2000 and led the team to NCAA ranking of 7th in the nation, won 2 Conference Championships and was voted Coach of the Year in 2000.

Huber has strong ties to the Cincinnati community and oversees his players' involvement in community service projects. The players have help build homes for Habitat for Humanity, which was featured in the NCAA News and the Lions were part of a neighborhood clean-up program in Delhi Township. The past three years Coach Huber and his players have volunteered and ran youth football camps at St. Elizabeth Seton in Milford, Ohio. Coach Huber also serves as the director of summer inter-city youth football camps for ProCamps Worldwide working with NFL Players and their foundations.

Coach Huber, a US Army Veteran who served overseas in Germany, received his master's degree in education from the Mount in 1999. Coach Huber is an active member in the Southwest Ohio Football Coaches Association (SWOFCA), the American Football Coaches Association, NCAA D3 Advisory Board Member, USA Today Top 25 Voting Member and is a member and ambassador for the Jason Foundation. He also runs youth football camps and clinics in the Cincinnati area every year. Huber has been the featured speaker at many events in the Cincinnati area and he serves as an advisory board member for the Boys and Girls Clubs of America (Clermont County). The Lions head coach also speaks at regional and national football events. Hobbies he enjoys include playing the guitar, gardening and fishing.
